Re: In re Northwest Airlines Corp.,
Case No. 1:07-cv-03969 (BSJ)

Dear Judge Jones:

As counsel for the Association of Flight Attendants-CWA, AFL-CIO ("AFA") in the above-captioned proceeding, I respectfully request a 32-day extension of the original June 11, 2007 deadline for filing our appellate brief. This is AFA's first request for an extension in this matter. Late this afternoon, AFA sought the consent of Appellee Northwest Airlines Corp. ("Northwest"), but because of time constraints, Northwest has not yet determined its response.

On April 26, 2007, AFA and Northwest reached a tentative agreement over terms and conditions of employment for Northwest's flight attendants, which included a provision for a $182 million bankruptcy claim for AFA. On May 3, 2007, AFA filed its notice of appeal of the above-captioned matter in the Bankruptcy Court, as well as a notice of appeal and motion for a stay pending appeal in a related matter now pending before the Honorable Kenneth M. Karas. On May 14, 2007, Northwest and AFA signed an agreement whereby

Northwest agreed to set aside $182 million in its distribution reserve for AFA's bankruptcy claim, and in consideration, AFA agreed to withdraw its motion for a stay pending appeal and to withdraw both of its appeals in the event that the tentative agreement was ratified.

On May 29, 2007, AFA's membership voted in favor of ratifying the tentative agreement. In accordance with the terms of the May 14 agreement, AFA prepared to withdraw both its appeals. However, on the evening of Tuesday, June 5, 2007, a member of AFA filed a challenge to the ratification vote. Under the terms of AFA's Policy Manual, the union is obligated to conduct a full investigation of any such challenge. We currently anticipate that AFA will complete its investigation no later than July 9, 2007.

In light of the pending investigation, there remains the possibility, however remote, that AFA would have to re-ballot the membership on the ratification of the agreement. AFA has informed Northwest that the monies to be distributed to flight attendants under the agreement should not be distributed on June 18 as scheduled, but must await AFA's resolution of the filed objection. Accordingly, despite Northwest's refusal to give consent, we request an extension of the deadline for filing our opening brief until July 13, 2007.

Please contact me if you have any questions regarding this matter.

Respectfully,

Robert S. Clayman
